IN THE COURT OF THE SUBDIVISIONAL MAGISTRATE (SOUTH) AT VILLIANUR

Present : Thiru S. RAJAMANICKAM,
Subdivisional Magistrate (South).

M.C. No. 346/2015

ORDER UNDER SECTION 144 of Cr. P.C.

Whereas, the Deputy Director (Public Health), Puducherry has laid information that a child named Master Rithick, S/o. Vaidyanathan (3 years 9 months old) resident of Keezhasathamangalampet, near Ariyur, Puducherry died due to Japanese Encephalitis on 1-8-2015. He further stated that another fever case also reported from the same area and since pigs are considered as amplifying host to Jananese Encephalitis virus, the pigs rearing has to be controlled/banned;

And whereas, it has been learnt from the information laid by the reliable sources that roaming of pigs in the region under the control of my jurisdiction has caused health hazards to the public, obstruction to the movement of vehicles and danger to human life, health and safety. These pigs are the sources/amplification host for viral infections and health related issues, apart from causing road accidents and putting safety of elderly people and small children at stake;

And whereas, I am satisfied that roaming of pigs will cause unhygienic atmosphere, threat to public health and safety and endangering human life. Therefore to safeguard the public, and to prevent any untoward incident an immediate action is required for curtailing these activities in the locality;

And whereas, it has been observed by the undersigned that the Commissioners of Commune Panchayats of Bahour, Villianur, Nettapakkam and Mannadipet have been entrusted with the responsibility of keeping good sanitary condition and preventing roaming of pigs in the locality;

Now, therefore, I, S. Rajamanickam, Subdivisional Magistrate (South), in exercise of powers vested upon me under section 144 of Cr.P.C. do hereby prohibit the roaming of pigs in the public places in the region under the control of my subdivision for a period of two months from the date of this order.

Given under the hand and seal of this court on this 10th day of August 2015.

S. RAJAMANICKAM,
Subdivisional Magistrate (South).
